John XIII. Ver. 134.

A New Commandment I give unto you, That

Here is nothing that doth more conduce to the Good of Mankind, in general, than being good to, and doing good one for another, in particular.

This engages the Affections, and excites the Endeavours of all: This monopolizeth all the Strengel and Powers of Men, not only for one another, but also for the publick Communities and Societies of which they are Members.

This answers the End of mens Being in this lower World, and glorifies that Eternal Goodness, they is their Being in this Life, and will for ever be their Blessedness in another.

On

On the contrary, There is nothing doth more directly tend to destroy the Souls and Bodies, the Liberties and Properties of Men, in particular, and the Good of publick Societies, in general, than Selfishness, Pride, and Covetous ness: This ham strings all just Powers, weakens Authority, cuts all the Ligaments of the Body Politick, makes, every part loofe and independent one upon another, like Bones wier'd in an Anatoman And cherefore, our Bleffed Saviour fore-feeing how necessary this would be in all the Chattabes of God, to the End of the World, is and this great Catholick and Christian Dury, To Lave one and ther; which He calls A New Communitient; that is, the Old Commandment that God gave by Moles (Levit 19 18) renewed under and Charlet Dispendition, for which he proposeth ministels as an excellent Pattern lay me. At I base Loved: Life, and will for ever betheft Bleffer

In fpeaking to which, I shall shew,

I. What 'tis to Love another.

II. What are the good Effects of Loving one another, in the Hearts and Lives of good Men.

III. How it makes Men easie in and to themselves, to the Government, and Communion they are Members of in this World. And

IN) How it for them for the Communion and Bloffed Society of the glorified Saints in Haven.

By Loving one mather, understand that Brotherly Love that the Apostle commends, Hel. 13. I which is such a Love as Brothers have, or ought to have, one towards another in Nature, who have the same Father, and the same Mother from whom they derive their Natural Lives.

Brethnen, we have all the same Father, which is God; and the same Mother, B 2 which which is our Church; and from them we derive our vital Principle of Spiritual Life: And therefore, as they that are Born after the Flesh, do love one another in a Natural manner; so we that are Born after the Spirit, should love one another in a Spiritual manner: For Spirits have their Spiritual Actings and Motions one towards another, as well as Bodies.

Where the Appearance is of God's Holineis in the Hearts and Lives of good Men, it draws out a Spiritual Poye to, and delight in them, one towards another Omy Soul, thou haft faid unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord: my Goodness extendeth not uneo thee; But to the Saints, and to the Excellent that are in the Earth, in whom is all my delight, Pfal. 16.2, 3.

And as the appearance of Goodness, in good Men, draws them one to another in boly Delight and Love; fo the Light of the Glory of God, in the Face of Jesus, draws them all to Christ:

Becaufe

Because of the Savour of thy good Ointments, thy Name is poured forth: therefore do the Virgins love thee: Cant. 1.3. Draw me, and me will run after thee. Therefore, saith our Bleffed Saviour, No Man can come unto me, except the Father draw bim, and the Father draws (and never drives) by the Cords of a Man, by the Bands of Love, Hosea 11.4. displaying the Riches of Gospel-Grace, viz. the heigth, and depth, the length, and breadth, of the Love of God in Christ: Love in all dimensions, and all dimensions in their Abstract; for that as many as look unto Jesus, till they love Him, and love Him fo as to obey Him, purely from a Principle of Divine Love implanted in them by the Ministration of the Gospel, shall be Saved by Ham.

Now, as natural Motion is a furefign of natural Life, so these spiritual Motions of Holy Souls, to defire afterand delight in good Men as such, are infallible symptoms of Spiritual Life: For-

And the time Apostle tells us, as plainly as words can speak, Than Circumcifion is nothing, nor Uncircumcifion, but a new Creature: And that as many as walk according to that Rule, viz that do not make Christianity to be in one or the other bus in the Change and trick of the whole man to God, which fas that Holy Man of God, Arch-Billion Usber, hath long fince told us) is the new Creature: Peace shall be to them, even that Peace (which our Church teacheth as to pray for mone of her excellent Collects) which the World cannot give, even the Peace of God, which paffeth all Understanding. MoreMoreover, this vital Principle of Spiritual life and love, is that only, that makes us Christians indeed; For if any Man bath not the Spirit of Christ, be

This doth not only incline the Soul to God, and to good Men, who bear the Reflexions of his Holy Nature, but likewise to the fincere Obedience of his Will and Law invigorating all the Powers and Faculties of their Minds, in all their Operations and Motions, inlightning their Understandings, by turning them from Darkness to Light, and from Salars Power to God; delightfully inclining their Wills to Goodness; turning their natural enmity into love; fulfilling that Prophetical Gospel-Promite, To make bis People a milling People in the Day of the Pewer, Pfal. rie 3. and according as our Saviour in his most Heavenly form hath taught us to Pray, The will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven, even with that Readiness and Alacrity, that Delight and

This divine Principle brings the Soul into a divine frame, and Gospel Temper, making it to be in fome good measure of that Heavenly Spirit that our Blessed Redeemer was of when he was upon Barth. And therefore he tells his Difciples, It we not of the World, but I have taken you out of the world. If you were of the World, are not of the World therefore the World bateth you from 15 19.
